TRUTH WILL PREVAIL:
Debunking Holocaust Denial in the Classroom

WHAT: Holocaust Denial, or the assertion that the Holocaust did not happen or was greatly exaggerated, has increasingly found its way into the classroom. This conference will provide teachers with the tools to confront Holocaust Denial as well as Common Core lessons that will empower students with the skills to combat such slander. The conference will also provide an opportunity to meet with local Holocaust survivors and breakout sessions on Internet literacy, Nuremberg: The Evidence of Genocide, Anne Frank: Autobiography as Evidence, Denying the Rape of Nanking, and Denying the Armenian Genocide.

*Presented through the generosity of Richard and Roberta Handel, the New Generation Educational Initiative of the Holocaust Resource Center of Buffalo, in conjunction with Erie 1 BOCES and Erie 2 Chautauqua-Cattaraugus BOCES.
