Event# IRT 708 - Presenting Dr. Anthony Muhammad – PLCs and Transforming School Culture

During a two-day workshop, Dr. Muhammad will challenge participants to cultivate healthy school culture with good structures and practice, as well promoting transformational leadership and leveraging strong, effective professional learning communities (PLC) to improve schools. During these two days, Dr. Muhammad will help participants examine school culture, how it is developed and the responsibility of school leaders in its development. He will offer powerful guidance for those seeking to develop and strengthen the educational leadership skills needed for change management.

This will include:

- examining both the technical and cultural dimensions of change and the ways in which both must be addressed.
- An understand the reasons behind resistance to change and how to manage it through effective leadership, and
- a synthesize our own skills as a school leader and how to utilize them to effect strategic change.

As a vehicle to improved school culture and manage change, Dr. Muhammad will also focus on the proper construction of collaborative teams and the PLC at Work process. He will help participants begin will explore the current state of our school’s collaborative teams and make plans to improve the schools focus on the four PLC questions (Guaranteed and Viable Curriculum, formative assessment, intervention, and enrichment). His recent book, Time for Change (available March 2019) and earlier work, Transforming School Culture will provide a basis for these sessions.
