Summer Consortium – Sponsored by Starpoint HS – English Department

DESCRIPTION:
Welcome to fREADom, Starpoint's independent reading initiative. Our summer high school consortium will explore why, examining research and data, we decided to embark on this mission. Next, we’ll take you through our pilot program, give a lesson demonstration, share student testimonials, and showcase our book selection process. We’ll wrap up with a teacher panel discussion, regarding any questions or concerns that may arise from the consortium attendees. Participants will also be privy to materials we use in the program. Be sure to bring the novel you are currently reading and spread the word.
