▶▶ Future Culinarian Expands His Knowledge

Steve Fuzer is a senior from Cheektowaga High School and is enrolled in the Culinary Arts program at Erie 1 BOCES Harkness Career and Technical Center.

"I enrolled in BOCES because I want to go to culinary school, and I wanted to expand my culinary knowledge," Steve said.

In the fall of 2021, following graduation, Steve plans on moving to San Antonio, Texas, and potentially opening a restaurant.

Under the instruction of John Marinelli, Steve has learned about cold food preparation, knives and small equipment, safety and sanitation, and more.

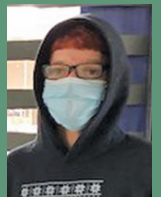

"Every day, Steve comes to class prepared to work," said Marinelli. "He is always eager to learn."

"This program has provided me an advantage to reach my goals by teaching me different techniques I didn't know and allowing me to learn how to operate in a high-volume kitchen," Steve said.

As part of public education, Erie 1 BOCES offers a variety of career and technical programs during the regular school day to high school students in Erie County. High school students interested in learning more about how they can participate in various programs such as sports science careers, web technologies and game programming, health careers or aviation technology, should visit www.e1b.org/cte or speak with their high school counselor.

Junior Larry Radka has found success in the College and Career Readiness Academy at EDGE, according to instructor Jacqui Koziol.

"This program helped me get on the right path and see the value in my education," Larry said. "The teachers are very supportive. I've enjoyed participating and engaging in classes that are interesting and fun."

Upon graduation, Larry hopes to work in the arts, particularly music or dance.
